

Omaha Beef Performance Update

Important information about this Saturday's Omaha Beef Performance:

- We have you signed up to perform this Saturday, April 17th.
- Practice is from 11:45-2:00pm at the RALSTON ARENA. Students should wear black shorts or pants and a black tank top or Stepper-ette shirt for practice. Students need to wear a mask as well.
- Students are allowed to bring a disposable water bottle to practice with their name on it.
- Spectators and parents are not allowed in the arena during practice.
- At 2:00pm, parents may pick up their student at the Ralston Arena. (Southeast Entrance)
- Arrive back to the arena at 6:00pm dressed and hair in a bun and make-up done. Students should wear their pink and black costume with tan tights and tan shoes. Older students wear the black sequin dress. If you need tights and shoes, the store is open this Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 5:00-7:00pm.
- A reminder that all parents and students need a ticket to enter the arena.
- We would like all performers to wear a BLACK mask. We will have students keep their masks on at all times.
- Students will sit with their parents during the first quarter. After the quarter ends, we will meet you by the Southeast entrance (Main entrance) to line up for the performance.
- Thank you and we are very excited to perform for the public once again!
