

Omaha Beef Performance

Saturday, March 29

Liberty First Credit Union Arena
(Ralston Arena)

Our performance at the Omaha Beef Game is quickly approaching.

Any student who is age 7 and older is welcome to attend. Students planning to participate must sign-up in advance by Thursday, March 14th- NO EXCEPTIONS. It is important to know exactly who to plan for. Students who are under 7, are welcome to attend to watch the halftime cheer the Stepper-ettes on!

Students will wear their new blue and black or black Stepper-ette Parade and Performance costume with tan tights and tan shoes.

Ticket Information:

- Performers MUST sign up using the Google Form that was emailed and posted on our Facebook page.
- Friends, family and performers need to have a ticket to get in to the game. There is a special reduced rate for Stepper-ette families.
- Tickets must be purchased in advance using this website:
<http://fevo-enterprise.com/event/Stepperettes2025>
It is much easier to purchase tickets via a computer rather than a phone.
- When using this site, be sure to purchase tickets for any friends and family that plan to attend and select a ticket for your performer as well. Performer tickets are free but a ticket is required and performer tickets will only be honored for performers in costume. They will be seated with you.

Required practice on Saturday, March 29 at the arena on the field from Noon-1:30pm

To participate, you must RSVP using the Google Form by

Thursday, March 14th

Upon receiving your registration, we will include your student in the performance line-up. No exceptions.
